'To commemorate the centenary of the end of World War One, Our Lady's Catholic College is hoping to collect '100 voices, for 100 years'. Their aim is to gather pictures and stories about relatives who were involved in the war; men, women and children, either on the battlefield or on the home front. They have asked that staff, students, families, parishes and the local community share their stories and pictures so that they can mark this important anniversary in a way that has a personal link to the school and our community. If anybody would like their relatives stories or photographs included in this commemoration could you please contact d.howarth@olcc.lanccs.sch.uk. '
